1.5.

Goods: the goods that the Company supplies to the Customer.

1.6.

Order: the Customer's order for the Goods.
2.

Entire Agreement

These Conditions and the documents referred to in them constitute the entire agreement between the Company and the Customer and supersede any previous agreement between them, including any terms or conditions which the Customer purports to apply under any purchase order, confirmation of order, specification or other document. In the event of any inconsistency between these Conditions and the terms of the Order, the terms of the Order shall prevail.
3.

Limits of the Contract

3.1.

The Order constitutes an offer by the Customer to purchase the Goods in accordance with these Conditions. The Customer is responsible for ensuring the terms of the Order and any applicable Specification submitted by the Customer are complete and accurate.
4.

Quotations

If a quotation is provided by the Company to the Customer, this shall not constitute an offer. A quotation shall only be valid for 7 (seven) days from the date on which it is issued (unless otherwise stated on the quotation).
5.

Delivery and Risk

5.1.

The Company's Delivery Note shall be conclusive evidence of the quantity of goods delivered.

5.2.

The risk of the goods shall pass to the Customer upon delivery of the goods at the Customer's trade premises. Where the Customer agrees to take delivery elsewhere than at the Customer's trade premises the risk in the goods are delivered in accordance with the Customer's instructions, and for the avoidance of doubt, delivery shall be completed when the goods are unloaded from the Company's delivery vehicle or loaded onto the Customer's collection vehicle, as the case may be.

5.3.

If any order for Goods is to be delivered by several instalments, each such instalment shall be treated as a separate Contract, and shall be invoiced and paid in accordance with the provisions of the Contract. Any delay in delivery or defect in an instalment shall not entitle the Customer to cancel any other instalment. The Company shall be entitled to suspend or cancel delivery whilst payment is overdue in respect of any previous instalment or under any other contract with the Customer, without prejudice to the exercise of any other rights hereunder or under any other such contract.
- 5.4.

Title to the Goods shall not pass to the Customer until the Company has received payment in full (in cash or cleared funds) for the Goods.
- 5.5.

Until payment in full of the price of the Goods and of other sums payable to the Company by the Customer:

i.

The property of the goods shall remain with the Company

ii.

The Customer shall store and keep the goods as bailee for the seller in such manner that they can be clearly identified as being the property of the Company.

iii.

Pending the passing of the property, the Customer is authorized to deal with the goods upon condition that any proceeds of the sale of the goods or the portion thereof attributable to the goods shall belong to the seller.

iv.

The Customer hereby grants the Company an irrevocable license to enter upon any premises of the Customer for the purpose of repossessing the goods.
- 4.6.

Where Goods are delivered outside of the United Kingdom the Customer will be responsible for complying with all necessary legal import and shipping documentation and to ensure the Goods comply with local regulatory and legal requirements.
6.

Price

6.1.

Unless otherwise agreed by the Company in writing, the price for the Goods shall be the price set out in the Order or if no price is quoted, the price set out in the Company's price list published on the date of delivery. The Company reserves the right to increase the price as well as the specifications, types or quality of the Goods at any time before delivery to reflect any increase in the cost of Goods that is due to:

i.

any factor beyond the Company's control;

ii.

any request by the Customer to alter the Order or the Contract;

iii.

any delay caused by any instructions by the Customer or failure by the Customer to give the Company adequate or accurate information or instruction.

7.

Where the Customer has an approved credit account expressly agreed in writing with the Company, the Customer shall pay each invoice submitted by the Company:

i.

within the credit terms set out on the credit application form;

ii.

in full and in cleared funds to a bank account nominated in writing by the Company,

iii.

time for payment shall be of the essence of the Contract.

7.2.

The Company reserves the right at any time in its absolute discretion to revoke or vary any credit extended to the Customer.

7.3.

7.4.

The Company reserves the right to charge interest pursuant to the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 as amended or modified, and in force from time to time, on any sums outstanding after the due date for payment. This is calculated on a daily basis at a rate of 3% over the base rate for the time being in force of Lloyds Bank Plc.
8.

8.1.

Any shortage or damaged goods in a delivery must be reported to the Company within 3 days of receipt of goods with documentary proof. The Company will at its sole discretion, replace or repair the goods or refund the value of the goods.
